SCRUTINEER INFORMATION

A candidate may appoint scrutineers to represent them by observing the conduct of voting and counting proceedings for the election. The appointment must be made in writing and signed by the candidate. An appointment form is included in your nomination package.

Scrutineers may:

1. Be present in the voting location after presenting the appropriate appointment documentation to the Presiding Election Official. At that time you will be asked to make a solemn declaration (Declaration of Scrutineer form) to preserve the secrecy of the ballot and not interfere with an elector marking a ballot. One scrutineer per candidate is permitted at each polling station.
2. Review new registration cards at the convenience of election officials.
3. Record voters as they obtain a ballot.
4. Give their agent their recordings of voters.
5. Challenge an elector on the basis that the person proposing to vote is not entitled to vote or has accepted an inducement to vote. This should be done by requesting the election official to not issue a ballot until the scrutineer has the opportunity to put his/her case to the Presiding Election Official who will deal with the challenge.
6. Sit in the location(s) designated by the Presiding Election Official to observe the election official recording the voter's name and handing out the ballot.
7. Be substituted by another person throughout the day. Only one scrutineer per candidate is permitted in the voting location at any given time.

Scrutineers may NOT:

1. Operate an electronic device in the voting place.
2. Interfere with the lawful duties of an election official.
3. Interfere with an elector marking a ballot.
4. Carry on conversations in the voting place with voters, election officials or other scrutineers.
5. Return for another session after having served their term.
6. Make critical comments while in the voting place that may be heard by voters or officials.
7. Refuse to leave the voting place if requested to do so by the Presiding Election Official.
8. Wear any paraphernalia promoting a candidate(s).
9. Move freely about the voting place. They must remain in the location(s) designated by the Presiding Election Official.

Division 14 — Counting of the Votes

When and where counting is to be done

- 133 (1) The counting of the votes on ballots for an election must not take place until the close of general voting for the election, but must take place as soon as practicable after this time.
- (2) The counting of the votes on ballots used for general voting is to be conducted at the voting place where the ballot boxes containing them are located unless the chief election officer directs that the counting is to take place at another location.
- (3) The counting of the votes on ballots other than those referred to in subsection (2) is to be conducted at a place specified by the chief election officer.
- (4) The chief election officer must notify the candidates in an election of any place other than a voting place referred to in subsection (2) at which the counting of the votes for the election is to be conducted.

Who may be present at counting

- 134 (1) A presiding election official and at least one other election official must be present while counting proceedings are being conducted.
- (2) Candidates in an election are entitled to be present when counting proceedings for the election are being conducted.
- (3) For each place where the votes on ballots for an election are being counted, one candidate representative for each candidate in the election is entitled to be present at each location within that place where ballots are being considered.
- (4) Persons other than those referred to in subsections (2) and (3) and election officials taking part in the counting may not be present when counting proceedings are being conducted, unless permitted by the presiding election official.

Who does the counting

- 135 (1) The counting of the votes on ballots for an election must be conducted by the presiding election official or, except as limited by subsection (2), by other election officials under the supervision of the presiding election official.

(3) For the purpose of preserving the secrecy of the ballot, if there would be fewer than 25 ballots in a ballot box after combination under subsection (2), the presiding election official may combine those ballots with ballots in any other ballot box.

(4) Except for combination under this section,

- (a) the votes on each class of ballots referred to in subsection (2) must be counted separately from the votes on ballots in any other class, and
- (b) a separate ballot account under section 141 and separate ballot packages under section 142 must be prepared for each class of ballots referred to in subsection (2) of this section.

Procedures for counting

- 138 (1) All ballots in each ballot box must be considered in accordance with this section.
- (2) As each ballot for an election is considered, it must be placed in such a manner that the persons present at the counting are able to see how the ballot is marked.
- (3) Unless rejected under section 139 (4) [invalid ballots], a mark referred to in section 139 (1) on a ballot for an election must be accepted and counted as a valid vote.
- (4) Counting must proceed as continuously as is practicable and the votes must be recorded.

(e) a ballot is to be rejected in relation to an election if there are more marks referred to in subsection (1) for the election on the ballot than there are candidates to be elected.

(5) In the case of a ballot that is part of a ballot set under section 114 (2) (b) [ballots for multiple elections packaged together], the ballot is not to be rejected under subsection (4) (a) solely on the basis that the ballot is part of an incomplete ballot set or that the ballot has become separated from its ballot set.

Objections to the acceptance of a vote or the rejection of a ballot

140 (1) A candidate or candidate representative may object to a decision to accept a vote or reject a ballot, with the objection recorded in accordance with section 138 (5) and (6) [procedures for counting].

(2) An objection must be made at the time the ballot is considered.

(3) The decision of the presiding election official regarding the acceptance of a vote or the rejection of a ballot may not be challenged except as provided in this section and the decision may be changed only by the chief election officer under section 145 [determination of official election results] or on a judicial recount.

- 144 (1) The chief election officer may announce preliminary results of an election before the determination under section 145 [determination of official election results] is completed.
- (2) Preliminary results must be based on the ballot accounts prepared under section 141, determined by calculating the total number of valid votes for each candidate in the election as reported on the ballot accounts.

Determination of official election results

- 145 (1) As the final counting proceeding subject to a judicial recount, the chief election officer must determine the results of an election in accordance with this section.
- (2) The chief election officer must notify the candidates in an election of the date, time and place when the determination is to be made and the candidates are entitled to be present when those proceedings take place.
- (3) The chief election officer must begin the determination by reviewing the ballot accounts or by having them reviewed by election officials authorized by the chief election officer.
- (4) The chief election officer may verify the results indicated by a ballot account by counting the votes on all or some of the ballots for the election, including reviewing the decision of a presiding election official regarding the acceptance of some or all of the votes or the rejection of some or all of the ballots.
- (5) The chief election officer may be assisted in counting under subsection (4) by other election officials, but must personally make all decisions regarding the acceptance of votes or the rejection of ballots that were subject to objection under section 140.

- (6) The chief election officer may reverse a decision of another election official regarding the acceptance of a vote or the rejection of a ballot made at the original consideration of the ballot and, if this is done, the chief election officer must endorse the ballot with a note of the reversal.

- (3) As an exception, if a candidate cannot be declared elected because there is an equality of valid votes for 2 or more candidates, the chief election officer must declare that the election is to be referred to a judicial recount.

When elected candidates may take office

147 (1) A candidate declared elected under section 146 is not entitled to make the oath of office until the time period for making an application for a judicial recount has ended.

(2) If an application for a judicial recount of an election is made, a candidate declared elected in the election is not entitled to make the oath of office until the recount has been completed and the candidate's election has been confirmed unless permitted by the court under subsection (3).

- (3) The Provincial Court may, on application, authorize a candidate who has been declared elected to make the oath of office if the court is satisfied that the candidate's election will not be affected by the results of the judicial recount.

Division 15 — Judicial Recount

Application for judicial recount

- 148 (1) An application may be made in accordance with this section for a judicial recount, to be undertaken by the Provincial Court, of some or all of the votes in an election.
- (2) Except as provided in subsection (5), an application may be made only on one or more of the following bases:
- (a) that votes were not correctly accepted or ballots were not correctly rejected as required by the rules of section 139 [rules for accepting votes and rejecting ballots];
 - (b) that a ballot account does not accurately record the number of valid votes for a candidate;
 - (c) that the final determination under section 145 [determination of official election results] did not correctly calculate the total number of valid votes for a candidate.
- (3) The time period during which an application may be made is limited to the time between the declaration of official election results under section 146 and 9 days after the close of general voting.
- (4) The application may be made only by

- (6) The document commencing an application must set out briefly the facts on which the application is based and must be supported by affidavit as to those facts.
- (7) At the time an application is commenced, a time must be set for the recount that is adequate to allow the court to complete the recount within the time limit set by section 149.

- (8) The person making the application must notify affected persons
- (a) by immediately notifying the chief election officer and the affected candidates in the election, if any, that a judicial recount will be conducted at the time set under subsection (7), and
 - (b) within 24 hours of filing the document commencing the application, by delivering to these persons copies of that document, the accompanying affidavit and a notice of the time for the recount.

Judicial recount procedure

- 149 (1) A judicial recount must be conducted in accordance with this section and completed by the end of the thirteenth day after the close of general voting.
- (2) The person who made the application for the recount, the chief election officer, the candidates in the election and the official agents and counsel of the candidates are entitled to be present at a judicial recount and other persons may be present only if permitted by the court.
- (3) The chief election officer must bring to the recount all ballot accounts used for the determination of official election results under section 145 and the ballot boxes containing the ballots for which the recount is requested.
- (4) In conducting a recount, the court must open the ballot boxes containing the ballots for which the recount is requested, count those ballots in accordance with sections 138 [procedures for counting] and 139 [rules for accepting votes and rejecting ballots] and confirm or change the ballot accounts in accordance with the counting.
- (5) In its discretion, the court may count other ballots in addition to those for which the recount was requested and, for this purpose, may require the chief election officer to bring other ballot boxes.
- (6) The court may appoint persons to assist in the recount.
- (7) As exceptions to the obligation to conduct a recount in accordance with the other provisions of this section,
- (a) if the person who made the application for the recount, the chief election officer and the candidates present at the recount agree, the court may restrict the ballots to be recounted as agreed by these persons at that time, or
 - (b) if the court determines on the basis of the ballot accounts that the results of a recount of the ballots, if it were conducted, would not materially affect the results of the election, the court may confirm the results of the election and take no further action under this section.
- (8) Unless otherwise directed by the court, the ballot boxes at a judicial recount must remain in the custody of the chief election officer.

- (9) During a recess or adjournment of a judicial recount and after the completion of the judicial recount, the ballot boxes must be resealed in accordance with section 121 [sealing of ballot boxes containing ballots] by the person having custody of them and may be additionally sealed by other persons present.

Results of judicial recount and orders as to costs

- 150 (1) At the completion of a judicial recount, the court must declare the results of the election.
- (2) The results declared under subsection (1) or following a determination by lot under section 151 are final, subject only to a declaration under section 155 [power of court on application respecting validity of election] that the election was invalid, and may not be appealed.
- (3) All costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to an application for judicial recount, including the recount and any other proceedings following from the application, must be paid by the local government, the applicant and the persons notified of the application under section 148 (8) [application for judicial recount], or any of them, in the proportion the court determines.
- (4) At the conclusion of a judicial recount, the court must make an order for the purposes of subsection (3) having regard to any costs, charges or expenses that, in the opinion of the court, were caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations or unfounded objections on the part of the applicant or the persons who were given notice.
- (5) In relation to subsection (3), the court may order that the costs be determined in the same manner as costs within the meaning of the Supreme Court Civil Rules.

Determination of results by lot if tie vote after judicial recount

- 151 (1) A local government may, by bylaw, provide that, if at the completion of a judicial recount the results of the election cannot be declared because there is an equality of valid votes for 2 or more candidates, the results will be determined by lot in accordance with this section rather than by election under section 152.
- (2) If a bylaw under subsection (1) applies and there is an equality of votes as described in that subsection, the results of the election are to be determined, as the conclusion of the judicial recount, by lot between those candidates in accordance with the following:
- (a) the name of each candidate is to be written on a separate piece of paper, as similar as possible to all other pieces prepared for the determination;
 - (b) the pieces of paper are to be folded in a uniform manner in such a way that the names of the candidates are not visible;
 - (c) the pieces of paper are to be placed in a container that is sufficiently large to allow them to be shaken for the purpose of making their distribution random, and the container is to be shaken for this purpose;

- (d) the court is to direct a person who is not a candidate or candidate representative to withdraw one paper;
- (e) the court is to declare elected the candidate whose name is on the paper that was drawn.

Runoff election if tie vote after judicial recount

- 152 (1) If at the completion of a judicial recount the results of the election cannot be declared because there is an equality of valid votes for 2 or more candidates, a runoff election must be held in accordance with this section unless a bylaw under section 151 [determination by lot] applies.
- (2) Except as provided in this section, this Part applies to a runoff election under subsection (1).
 - (3) The candidates in the runoff election are to be the unsuccessful candidates in the original election who do not withdraw, and no new nominations are required or permitted.
 - (4) As soon as practicable after the judicial recount, the chief election officer must notify the candidates referred to in subsection (3) that an election is to be held and that they are candidates in the election unless they deliver a written withdrawal to the chief election officer within 3 days after being notified.
 - (5) The chief election officer must set a general voting day for the runoff election, which must be on a Saturday no later than 50 days after the completion of the judicial recount.
 - (6) If advance registration would otherwise be permitted, the closed period under section 71 (4) [closing of advanced registration] extends until the day after the close of general voting for the election under this section.
 - (7) No new list of registered electors is required and sections 77 to 80 do not apply.
 - (8) So far as reasonably possible, election proceedings must be conducted as they were for the original election except that, if voting under section 112 [use of voting machines] was used for the original election, it is not necessary to use this for the election under this section.
 - (9) Without limiting subsection (8), so far as reasonably possible, voting opportunities equivalent to those provided for the original election must be held and, for these, no new bylaws under this Part are required.

Division 16 — Declaration of Invalid Election

Application to court respecting validity of election

- 153 (1) The right of an elected candidate to take office or the validity of an election may not be challenged except by an application under this section.

- (2) An application may be made in accordance with this section to the Supreme Court for a declaration regarding the right of a person to take office or the validity of an election.
- (3) The time limit for making an application is 30 days after the declaration of official election results under section 146.
- (4) An application may be made only by a candidate in the election, the chief election officer or at least 4 electors of the municipality or electoral area for which the election was held.
- (5) An application may be made only on one or more of the following bases:
 - (a) that a candidate declared elected was not qualified to hold office at the time the candidate was elected or, between the time of the election and the time for taking office, the candidate has ceased to be qualified to hold office;
 - (b) that an election should be declared invalid because it was not conducted in accordance with this Act or a regulation or bylaw under this Act;
 - (c) that an election or the election of a candidate should be declared invalid because section 161 [vote buying], 162 [intimidation] or 163 (2) (a) [voting when not entitled] was contravened.
- (6) As a restriction on subsection (5) (b), an application may not be made on any basis for which an application for judicial recount may be or may have been made.
- (7) At the time the petition commencing an application is filed, the court registry must set a date for the court to hear the application, which must be at least 10 days but no later than 21 days after the date the petition is filed.
- (8) As soon as practicable, but no later than 2 days after a petition is filed, the person making the application must serve the petition and the notice of hearing on the municipality or regional district for which the election was held.
- (9) If a candidate affected by an application files a written statement renouncing all claim to the office to which the candidate was elected, the court may permit the petition for the application to be withdrawn unless it is based on an allegation that the candidate who has renounced the office contravened section 161 [vote buying] or 162 [intimidation].

Hearing of application
